Thanks for the info.

VOBIS: It is true that VOBIS is still promoting DR-DOS. The reason is that VOBIS wants to keep a 50:50 ratio between MS-DOS and DR-DOS. We are working on getting this stopped over the next months.

Peacock: As they have a per-processor license for MS-DOS this looks

How is it going with the 1 am in Taiwan and good news.
A major distributor here claims that dr is gaining momentum in germany. vobis is pushing dr aggressively and displaying it all over the place. Peacock is also pushing dr dos hard (2nd largest distributor
in germany). data comes from pwong via jurgen Lormann from unitron computer system?

Also today I visited a palmtop mfg. called vobis. They are making a palmtop and key targets include dell/compaq/ibm/dec/compuadd and vobis.

b/c of vobis they are designing two versions of the system - one with dr dos in rom and one with ms-dos in rom.

Can you give me an update please?

thanks
Brad
