All,
 Below summarizes our meeting from -2 weeks ago. I believe I've got it pretty complete, but please review closely. Sorry for the delay, but some of these took quite a while to get resolved. The bottom 2 sections need work - I believe the born systems/exhibits are correct on the 2nd to last and the PGLs need updating. If prod group still disagrees with naming conventions I've got please begin working with Angela to change. Also work with Angela to get last section changed. I will change the exhibits in conjunction with her product changes.

Attaching my latest try at the PGL. Highlighted ones are largely due to the bottom 2 categories. Please put an 'x' for availability see 'xxx' notation or column where you think it'll be best seen. I've left it in the notes section.
 Tim

Updated Fine Artist name on PGL. Removed all the duplicates Ralph listed from C6 and kept them on C1. Combined our remaining lists of discrepancies.

IMG to Change.xls

So between Ralph's scrub and mine we have the 2 lists. We need the product groups help on how to proceed. I'll put possible actions at titles.

Microsoft AutoRoute Express Europe 2000
Microsoft AutoRoute Express Great Britain 2000

Microsoft Encarta 98 Encyclopedia (Single-Disc Edition - No. America version) - (which is on C6 so may not matter)
Microsoft The Puzzle Collection Version 1.0 (but Microsoft Entertainment Pack The Puzzle Collection V1.0 is listed on PGL), so maybe this Product #11989 should be dropped??
Microsoft® Encarta® 99 Deluxe (DVD Edition)
Microsoft® Home Essentials® 98 (NORTH AMERICA ONLY VERSION) ( FOR CANADA) Note: Special export provisions apply. See Additional Provisions.

Did you get a chance to review my PGL changes? If they look good, we can begin working on fixing the titles not on exhibit and titles not on pgl issues detailed below.
Thx

I copied the current IMG PGL data into another workbook instead of waiting any longer for a clean PGL. Still some titles either I, or you don't have, their rows are highlighted in yellow. The ones missing from the PGL primarily are the high encryption. Looks like you've got them all generically listed under EN. They should prob. be added so the PGL and License are applies to apples comparisons. I removed the 'availability' columns and added a line in the release notes at the bottom.

Summary of differences as follows:

Titles not on exhibit:

OK, I've cut and pasted names onto the xls until my cut & paster is sore. I've removed the 2 availability columns, and added a text line at the bottom with the http site where the OEM Product Ops group maintains their release schedules.

As this one is a little old I've struck through what I think are the products that are no longer available. These rows should be deleted.

The highlighted rows mean I can't find them on the current license exhibits, or I found them on the exhibits, but the names don't match, or I have something on the exhibit that wasn't on the PGL (these I added the names, but no other data in the row).

I think we're 85% good. I'd like to publish the apps license now and then fix the remainder the next round.

Thoughts?

Find the attached PGLs .xls at the end of this mail ... the additional string is background data for Tim.

Since the attached PGL we have also deleted additional items in line with the termination of third party licenses. These are:

- Nickelodeon 3D Movie Maker; termination of third party license.
- Rabbit Ears: PJ's Reading Adventures; termination of third party license.
- Rabbit Ears: Leopard v1.x; termination of third party license.
- OutWars; only one OEM deal to date w/w which is set to end January. SKU has java issue but will not be re-released.
- Oceans and Dangerous Creatures were also removed due to termination of third party license.

On all of the above ... we will allow existing licenses to ship through to expiration but no new licenses should be created.

Additionally we have agreed a new PGL pre publication review process.

My comments:

- 1) Fighter Ace & Zone internet property with playtime you state [below] requires 200K and up to license but the PGL has entries in the 100K and up columns. We still need to review and approve the licensing exhibit for this when it's ready. During review let's think now about what other items are going to get dragged down into the space that subsidizes low margin PCs and whether it makes sense to do it. [Michael Dwan] Yes you are correct pls delete the 100k entry and we will restrict this to over 200k volumes. I had worked with SallyN on the exhibit before my vacation so let me know if more work needed to finalize. The other online property is Encarta online but I did not add this to the PGL at this time as I don't want to popularize it beyond PB/NEC until we learn from our experience there.
- 2) Money 99 reduced footprint I don't see a footnote requirement for recovery CD option. Since the CD is absent there should be a requirement for this to be present on the recovery CD.

MS-PCA 2597464
HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

[Michael Dwan] Good point we should add this requirement do you want me to cover with SallyN in the APs and a foot note in the PGL also ?

3) All items with DVD media should require a backup media be shipped. I don't think we have resolved completely the issue of DVD as a recovery media type and the implications of having titles live on a DVD recovery media when they are [possibly] engineered to be present in the drive in order to execute.

[Michael Dwan] For the DVDs offered by IMG on the PGL these will only be available to OEM with the DVD ... so recovery media is present.

4) The issue you state below of equating Works royalty with the Encarta royalty seems to suggest we need to raise the Works royalty. Kurt needs to comment on the history you mention.

[Michael Dwan] We can approach this is two ways either increase the price of Encarta or decrease Works either way we believe they should align at higher volumes and this is what we discussed with Kurt previously.

5) Will you write a summary of the changes that merit highlighting so they can accompany the announcement of the latest PGL.

[Michael Dwan] Here is the mail I sent earlier for the announcement ... is this OK ?

Kurt, here is a copy a new revised IMG PGL for your approval. Hopefully we can get this published by September 1st. Thanks, M.

Notes:

As an audit trail (we learned from your advice last year!) PGL entries are color coded as follows:

Red = Revised
Blue = New
Black = Unchanged
Strikethrough = Deleted

We also left a codes in the left column to assist your sort of the color codes (Unchanged, Revised, Deleted, New).

Formatting: we have inserted an additional column for OEM release date and we have added additional information on NT compatibility to the platform column as we were receiving many queries from SEs and AMs. We also request that our new easy to read header formats are retained for publication.

Notable changes:

- Additions of Graphics category to IMG (previously DAD owned): Picture It!, Greetings
- Encarta Encyclopedia: substantially reduced royalties at 25k and 10k volumes, this is good for international in particular.
- Greetings & Picture It!: substantial royalty reductions and added UK English edition. Picture It! Express is also now available.
- Games: Price reductions on Age of Empires, CART, Monster Truck 1.
- New Products:
  - Games: Combat Flight Sim, MotoCross Madness 3D, Urban Assault, OutWars, Close Combat 3, Pinball Arcade, Revenge of Arcade
  - Mapping: MapPoint,
  - Personal Finance: TaxSaver
  - Reference: Encarta Africanna
  - DreamWorks: Small Soldiers: Squad Commander (an OEM exclusive!)
  - Kids: My Personal Tutor 1st & 2nd grade
  - Graphics: Home Publishing.
- New Versions: Auto Route Express, Money, Encarta Virtual Globe/World Atlas, Bookshelf, Golf, Monster Truck Madness, Greetings, Picture It, Expedia Streets and Trips 2000.
- Internet Properties: Fighter Ace and Zone clients with Free time (only offered at 200k units and up).
- DVD skus for OEM: Graphics Studio Home Publishing, Kids super combo, Close Combat 1-3 Series, Encarta.
- International: reduced pricing of Japanese language titles, they are now in line with other international versions.
- Deletions: Flight Sim v6.0, Golf 2.0 and 3.0, Kids Plus Pack, My Personal Tutor Pre School to First

MS-PCA 2597465
HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL

Grade, AutoMap Streets & Trip Planner v5.0, AutoRoute Express Europe & GB v5.0, Encarta World Atlas v3.0.

Issues for discussion:

- Encarta: In preparing this PGL we reviewed the DAD PGL and found that Works is priced above Encarta at the 50k -500k volumes. As you recall we previously agreed to align Encarta and Works pricing at these volumes. However we heard from Edmcc that you'd approved his new increased price PGL for Works. We suggest aligning the Works pricing with our Encarta price at these levels.
