Vicki,

Attached is the red-line. Are we going to see any new/different instructions from you this afternoon? And what's your availability for our Lead Counsel Meet & Confer?

Thanks,
Alison

Vicki,

Attached is a modified draft of Apple's jury instructions, taking account of Judge Koh's comments in response to our previous joint submission. Marc Pernick will shortly send you red-line information to help you understand what is different from past versions. As I mentioned to you on the phone, we are still refining but this should give us a good basis from which to have fruitful negotiations.

We also should set a time for this afternoon's in-person meeting. What works for your team?

Regards,
Alison
