(f) Any material agreement, contract, mortgage, indenture, lease, license, franchise, arrangement, commitment or authorization which may be, by its terms, terminated or breached by reason of the execution of this Agreement, the Articles of Merger, the closing of the Merger, or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby;

(g) Except for trade indebtedness incurred in the ordinary course of business, any instrument evidencing or related in any way to indebtedness in excess of $10,000,000 incurred in the acquisition of companies or other entities or indebtedness in excess of $10,000,000 for borrowed money by way of direct loan, sale of debt securities, purchase money obligation, conditional sale, guarantee, or otherwise;

(h) Any material license agreement, either as licensor or licensee (excluding nonexclusive software licenses granted to customers or end-users in the ordinary course of business) involving the payment of at least $1,000,000;

(i) Any contract containing covenants purporting to limit WordPerfect's freedom or that of any of its Subsidiaries to compete in any line of business in any geographic area; or

(j) Any other agreement, contract or commitment which is material to WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Each agreement, contract, mortgage, indenture, plan, lease, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, arrangement, license and commitment listed in the WordPerfect Disclosure Schedule pursuant to this Section 3.13 is valid and binding on WordPerfect or its Subsidiaries, as applicable, and is in full force and effect, and neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor to the knowledge of WordPerfect, any other party thereto, has breached any material provision of, or is in material default under the terms of, any such agreement, contract, mortgage, indenture, plan, lease, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, arrangement, license or commitment.

3.14 Taxes.

(a) All Tax (as defined below) returns, statements, reports and forms (including estimated Tax returns and reports and information returns and reports) required to be filed with any Taxing Authority (as defined below) with respect to any Taxable period ending on or before the Effective Time, by or on behalf of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the “WordPerfect Returns”), have been or will be filed when due in accordance with all applicable laws (including any extensions of such due date), and all amounts shown due therein have been paid or have been fully accrued on the WordPerfect Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Except to the extent provided for or disclosed in the WordPerfect financial statements (including notes thereto), the WordPerfect Returns correctly reflect in all material respects (and, as to any WordPerfect Returns not filed as of the date hereof but filed prior to the Merger, will correctly reflect in all material respects) the Tax liability and status of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries (including each such corporation’s status as an S corporation within the meaning of Section 1361 of the Code or any comparable provision under state law).

WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries have withheld and paid to the applicable financial institution or Taxing Authority all amounts required to be withheld. All WordPerfect Returns pertaining to federal income tax filed with respect to Taxable years of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries through the Taxable year ended December 31, 1990 in the case of the United States, have been examined and closed or are WordPerfect Returns with respect to which the applicable period for assessment under applicable law, after giving effect to extensions or waivers, has expired. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries (or any member of any affiliated or combined group of which WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries has been a member) has granted any extension or waiver of the limitation period applicable to any WordPerfect Returns. There is no claim, audit, action, suit, proceeding, or investigation now pending or (to the best knowledge of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries) threatened against or with respect to WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries in respect of any Tax or assessment. No notice of deficiency or similar document of any Tax Authority has been received by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, and there are no liabilities for Taxes (including liabilities for interest, additions to tax and penalties thereon and related expenses) with respect to the issues that have been raised (and are currently pending) by any Tax Authority that could, if determined adversely to WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, materially affect the liability of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries for Taxes in other Taxable (as defined below) periods. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor any other person on behalf of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, has entered into nor will it enter into any agreement or consent pursuant to Section 341(f) of the Code. There are no liens for Taxes upon the assets of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries except liens for current Taxes not yet due. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has been or will be required to include any material adjustment in taxable income for any Tax period (or portion thereof) pursuant to Section 481 or 263A of the Code or any comparable provision under state or foreign Tax laws as a result of transactions, events or accounting methods employed prior to the Closing. There is no contract, agreement, plan or arrangement, including but not limited to the provisions of this Agreement, covering any employee or former employee of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries that, individually or collectively, could give rise to the payment of any amount that would not be deductible pursuant to Section 162 (as unreasonable compensation) or pursuant to Section 280G of the Code. WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries have provided or made available to Novell or its designee representative true and correct copies of all material Tax Returns, and, as reasonably requested by Novell prior to or following the date hereof, information statements, reports, work papers, Tax opinions and memoranda and other Tax data and documents. WordPerfect has not been within the five year period preceding the date hereof a “United States real property holding corporation” within the meaning of Section 897(c)(2) of the Code. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to (or obligated under) any tax allocation, Tax distribution, tax sharing, tax indemnity or similar agreement or arrangement with respect to any Tax (including without limitation any such agreement or arrangement imposed by operation of law).

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms have the following meanings: "Tax" (and, with correlative meaning, "Taxes" and "Taxable") means (A) any net income, alternative or add-on minimum tax, gross income, gross receipts, sales, use, ad valorem, transfer, franchise, profits, license, withholding, payroll, employment, excise, severance, stamp, occupation, premium, property, environmental or windfall profit tax, custom, duty or other tax, governmental fee or other like assessment or charge of any kind whatsoever, together with any interest or any penalty, addition to tax or additional amount imposed by any Governmental Entity (a "Taxing Authority") responsible for the imposition of any such tax (domestic or foreign), (B) any liability for the payment of any amounts of the type described in (A) as a result of being a member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group for any Taxable period and (C) any liability for the payment of any amounts of the type described in (A) or (B) as a result of any express or implied obligation to indemnify any other person.

3.15 Interests of Officers and Directors. Except as disclosed in a supplemental schedule to be delivered to Novell within 21 days following the date of this Agreement, no officer or director of WordPerfect or any "affiliate" or "associate" (as those terms are defined in Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act) of any such person has had, either directly or indirectly, a material interest in: (i) any person or entity which purchases from or sells, licenses or furnishes to WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries any goods, property, technology or intellectual or other property rights or services; (ii) any contract or agreement to which WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which it may be bound or affected; or (iii) any property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, used in or pertaining to its business or that of its Subsidiaries, including any interest in the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights, except for rights as a shareholder, and except for rights under any Plan.

3.16 Intellectual property.

(a) WordPerfect owns, or is licensed or otherwise entitled to exercise, without restriction, all rights to, all patents, trademarks, trade names, service marks, copyrights, mask work rights, trade secret rights and other intellectual property rights, and any applications or registrations therefor, and all mask works, net lists, schematics, technology, source code, know-how, computer software programs and all other tangible and intangible information or material, that are used or currently proposed to be used in the business of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries as currently conducted or as currently proposed to be conducted (collectively, the "WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights").
(b) The WordPerfect Disclosure Schedule lists all patents, registered and unregistered copyrights, trademarks, service marks, company names, product or service identifiers and mask work rights, and any applications or registrations therefor, included in the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights, together with a list of all of WordPerfect’s currently marketed products and an indication as to which, if any, of such products have been registered for copyright protection with the United States Copyright Office and any foreign offices.

(c) Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries is, or as a result of the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the performance of WordPerfect’s obligations hereunder will be, in violation of, or lose any rights pursuant to any license, sublicense or agreement described in the WordPerfect Disclosure Schedule.

(d) WordPerfect or one of its Subsidiaries is the owner or licensee of, with all necessary right, title and interest in and to (free and clear of any liens, encumbrances or security interests), the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights and has rights (and except as set forth in the WordPerfect Disclosure Schedule is not contractually obligated to pay any compensation to any third party in respect thereof) in an amount in excess of $1,000,000 to the use thereof or the material covered thereby in connection with the services or products in respect of which the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights are being used.

(e) No claims with respect to the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights have been asserted or, to the best knowledge of WordPerfect, after reasonable investigation, are threatened by any person, and WordPerfect knows of no claims (i) to the effect that the manufacture, sale or use of any product as now used or offered or proposed for use or sale by WordPerfect or any Subsidiary of WordPerfect infringes any copyright, patent, trade secret, or other Intellectual property right, (ii) against the use by WordPerfect or Subsidiary of WordPerfect of any WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights, or (iii) challenging the ownership, validity or effectiveness of any of the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights.

(f) All patents and registered trademarks, service marks, and other company, product or service identifiers and registered copyrights held by WordPerfect are valid and subsisting.

(g) To the best knowledge of WordPerfect, there has not been and there is not now any material unauthorized use, infringement or misappropriation of any of the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights by any third party, including without limitation any employee or former employee of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries; neither WordPerfect nor any of its subsidiaries has been sued or charged in writing as a defendant in any claim, suit, action or proceeding which involves a claim of infringement of any patents, trademarks, service marks, copyrights or other intellectual property rights and which has not been finally determined prior to the date hereof; there are no such charges or claims outstanding; and to the best knowledge of WordPerfect neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has any infringement liability with respect to any patent, trademark, service mark, copyright or other intellectual property right of another.

(h) No WordPerfect Intellectual Property Right is subject to any outstanding order, judgment, decree, stipulation or agreement restricting in any manner the licensing thereof by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has entered into any agreement to indemnify any other person against any charge of infringement of any WordPerfect Intellectual Property Right. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has entered into any agreement granting any third party the right to bring infringement actions with respect to, or otherwise to enforce rights with respect to, any WordPerfect Intellectual Property Right. WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries have the exclusive right to file, prosecute and maintain all applications and registrations with respect to the WordPerfect Intellectual Property Rights.

3.17 Restrictions on Business Activities. There is no material agreement, judgment, injunction, order or decree binding upon WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries which has or could reasonably be expected to have the effect of prohibiting or materially impeding any business practice of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, any acquisition of property by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries or the conduct of business by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries as currently conducted or as currently proposed to be conducted by WordPerfect.
3.18 Title to Properties; Absence of Liens and Encumbrances; Condition of Equipment.

(a) WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries have good and valid title to, or, in the case of leased properties and assets, valid leasehold interests in, all of their tangible properties and assets, real, personal and mixed, used in their business, free and clear of any liens, charges, pledges, security interests or other encumbrances, except as reflected in the WordPerfect Financial Statements or except for such imperfections of title and encumbrances, if any, which are not substantial in character, amount or extent, and which do not materially detract from the value, or interfere with the present use, of the property subject thereto or affected thereby.

(b) The equipment owned or leased by WordPerfect or its Subsidiaries is, taken as a whole, (A) adequate for the conduct of the business of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries consistent with their past practice, (b) suitable for the uses to which it is currently employed, (C) in good operating condition, (D) regularly and properly maintained, (E) not obsolete, dangerous or in need of renewal or replacement, except for renewal or replacement in the ordinary course of business, and (F) free from any defects, except, with respect to clauses (B) through (E) above, as would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

3.19 Governmental Authorizations and Licenses. Each of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries is the holder of all licenses, authorizations, permits, concessions, certificates and other franchises of any Governmental Entity required to operate its business (collectively, the “Licenses”). The Licenses are in full force and effect. There is not now pending, nor to the best knowledge of WordPerfect is there threatened, any action, suit, investigation or proceeding against WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries before any Governmental Entity with respect to the Licenses, nor is there any issued or outstanding notice, order or complaint with respect to the violation by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any License or any rule or regulation applicable thereto.

3.20 Environmental Matters.

(a) No substance that is regulated by any Governmental Entity or that has been designated by any Governmental Entity to be radioactive, toxic, hazardous or otherwise a danger to health or the environment (a “Hazardous Material”) is present in, on or under any property that WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries has at any time owned, operated, occupied or leased.

(b) Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has transported, stored, used, manufactured, released or exposed its employees or any other person to any Hazardous Material in violation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, order or law.

(c) WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries have obtained all permits, licenses and other authorizations (“Environmental Permits”) required to be obtained by any of them under the laws of any Governmental Entity relating to pollution or protection of the environment (collectively, “Environmental Laws”). All Environmental Permits are in full force and effect. WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries are in compliance with all terms and conditions of the Environmental Permits and are in compliance in all material respects with all other limitations, restrictions, conditions, standards, prohibitions, requirements, obligations, schedules and timetables contained in the Environmental Laws or contained in any regulation, code, plan, order, decree, judgment, notice or demand letter issued, entered, promulgated or approved thereunder. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice or is aware of any past or present condition or practice of the business conducted by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries which forms or could form the basis of any claim, action, suit, proceeding, hearing or investigation against WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, arising out of the manufacture, processing, distribution, use, treatment, storage, spill, disposal, transport, or handling, or the emission, discharge, release or threatened release into the environment, of any Hazardous Material.

3.21 Insurance. WordPerfect maintains insurance policies and fidelity bonds covering the assets, business, equipment, properties, operations, employees, officers and directors of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Insurance Policies”) which are of the type and in amounts customarily carried by persons conducting businesses similar to those of WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries. There is no material claim by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries pending under any of the material insurance Policies as to which coverage has been questioned, denied or disputed by the underwriters of such policies or bonds. All premiums payable under all such material Insurance Policies have been paid and WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries are otherwise in full compliance with the terms of such policies and bonds (or other policies and bonds providing substantially similar insurance coverage). WordPerfect does not know of any threatened termination of, or material premium increase with respect to, any of its material Insurance Policies.

3.22 Board Approval. The Board of Directors of WordPerfect has, as of the date hereof, unanimously (i) approved this Agreement and the Articles of Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, (ii) determined that the Merger is in the best interests of the shareholders of WordPerfect and is on terms that are fair to such shareholders and (iii) recommended that the shareholders of WordPerfect approve this Agreement, the Articles of Merger and the Merger.

3.23 Labor Matters. WordPerfect and its Subsidiaries are in compliance in all material respects with all currently applicable laws and regulations respecting employment, discrimination in employment, terms and conditions of employment and wages and hours and occupational safety and health and employment practices, and are not engaged in any unfair labor practice. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice from any Governmental Entity, and there has not been asserted before any Governmental Entity, any claim, action or proceeding to which WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or involving WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, and there is neither pending nor, to WordPerfect's best knowledge, threatened any investigation or hearing concerning WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries arising out of or based upon any such laws, regulations or practices.

3.24 Questionable Payments. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries nor to its best knowledge any director, officer or other employee of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries has: (i) made any payments or provided services or other favors in the United States of America or in any foreign country in order to obtain preferential treatment or consideration by any Governmental Entity with respect to any aspect of the business of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries; or (ii) made any political contributions which would not be lawful under the laws of the United States and the foreign country in which such payments were made. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries nor to its best knowledge any director, officer or other employee of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries nor, to the best knowledge of WordPerfect, any customer or supplier of any of them has been the subject of any inquiry or investigation by any Governmental Entity in connection with payments or benefits or other favors to or for the benefit of any governmental or armed services official, representative or employee with respect to any aspect of the business of WordPerfect or its Subsidiaries or with respect to any political contribution.

3.25 Accounting Matters. Neither WordPerfect nor any of its Subsidiaries nor, to WordPerfect's best knowledge after reasonable inquiry, any of its Affiliates (as defined in Section 5.12), has taken or agreed to take any action that would adversely affect the ability of Novell to account for the business combination to be effected by the Merger as a pooling of interests.

3.26 Brokers. No broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the preceding sentence is in any way inaccurate, WordPerfect agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Novell from any liability for any commission or compensation in the nature of a finder's fee (and the costs and expenses of defending against such liability or asserted liability) for which Novell or any of its officers, partners, employees or representatives is responsible.

3.27 Disclosure. No representation or warranty made by WordPerfect in this Agreement, nor any document, written information, statement, financial statement, certificate, schedule or exhibit prepared and furnished or to be prepared and furnished by WordPerfect or its representatives pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, contains or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact, or omits or will omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements or facts contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were furnished. To the best knowledge of WordPerfect after reasonable inquiry, there is no event, fact or condition that has resulted in, or could reasonably be expected to result in, a Material Adverse Effect that has not been set forth in the WordPerfect Financial Projections constitute WordPerfect's best estimate of the information purported to be shown therein and WordPerfect reasonably believes that there is a reasonable basis for such projections and is not aware of any fact or information that would lead him to believe that such projections are incorrect or misleading in any material respect.

ARTICLE IV
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF NOVELL AND SUB

Except as disclosed in a document referring specifically to the representations and warranties in this Agreement which identifies the section and subsection to which such disclosure relates and which is delivered by Novell to WordPerfect prior to the execution of this Agreement (the Novell Disclosure Schedule), Novell and Sub represent and warrant to, and agree with, WordPerfect as follows:

4.1 Organization; Standing and Power. As of the date hereof the authorized capital stock of Novell consists of 400,000,000 shares of Novell Common Stock, $.10 par value and 500,000 shares of Novell Preferred Stock, $.10 par value. All the outstanding shares of Novell Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid, nonassessable and free of preemptive rights except pursuant to rights issued under Novell's Stockholder Rights Plan. The shares of Novell Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger are duly authorized and reserved for issuance and, when issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Articles of Merger, will be validly issued, fully paid, nonassessable and free of preemptive rights (other than any rights which may be issued pursuant to Novell’s Stockholder Rights Plan). As of the date hereof, the authorized capital stock of Sub consists of 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $.01 par value, all of which are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and owned by Novell. Except for the shares listed above issuable pursuant to Novell Options, there are not any options, warrants, calls, conversion rights, commitments or agreements of any character to which Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell is a party or by which any of them may be bound obligating Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell to issue, deliver or sell, or cause to be issued, delivered or sold, additional shares of the capital stock of Novell or of any Subsidiary of Novell or obligating Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell to grant, extend or enter into any such option, warrant, call, conversion right, commitment or agreement.

4.3 Authority. Novell and Sub have all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject to any required Stockholder approval, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Articles of Merger. Sub has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into the Articles of Merger. The execution and delivery by Novell of this Agreement, and by Sub of this Agreement and the Articles of Merger, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Articles of Merger have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Novell and Sub. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Novell and Sub and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Novell and Sub enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except that the availability of equitable remedies is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought. The Articles of Merger have been duly executed and delivered by Sub and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Sub enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and except that the availability of equitable remedies is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought. Subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VI, the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Articles of Merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not conflict with or result in any violation of any material statute, law, rule, regulation, judgment, order, decree or ordinance applicable to Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell or their respective properties or assets, or conflict with or result in any breach or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or to loss of a material benefit, under (i) any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of Novell or any of its Subsidiaries or (ii) any material agreement, contract, note, mortgage, indenture, lease, instrument, permit, concession, franchise or license to which Novell or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which Novell or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental entity is required by or with respect to Novell or Sub in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Articles of Merger or the consummation by Novell and Sub of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except for (i) the filing of a premerger notification report by Novell and Sub under the HSR Act, (ii) the filing of the S-4 and such other documents with, and the obtaining of such orders from, the SEC and various state securities or "blue sky" authorities, and the making of such reports under the Exchange Act, as are required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iii) the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Utah Division of Corporations and Commercial Code and the Secretary of State of the State of Utah and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of other states in which Novell is qualified to do business, (iv) such consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings as may be required under the laws of any foreign country which if not obtained or made would not have a Material Adverse Effect and (v) such other consents, authorizations, filings, approvals and registrations which if not obtained or made would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

4.4 SEC Documents; Novell Financial Statements. Novell has furnished WordPerfect with or made available to WordPerfect a true and complete copy of each statement, annual, quarterly and other report, registration statement, (without exhibits) and definitive proxy statement filed by Novell with the SEC since October 31, 1992 (the "Novell SEC Documents"). As of their respective filing dates, the Novell SEC Documents complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act or the Securities Act, as the case may be, and none of the Novell SEC Documents contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading, except to the extent corrected by a subsequently filed Novell SEC Document. The financial statements of Novell included in the Novell SEC Documents (the "Novell Financial Statements") comply as to form in all material respects with applicable accounting requirements and with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto or, in the case of unaudited statements, by normal, recurring audit adjustments, provided that the notes and accounts receivable are collectible in the amounts shown thereon and inventories are not subject to write-down, except in an amount not material or for which Novell has provided adequate reserves). There has been no change in Novell's accounting policies or estimates except as described in the notes to the Novell Financial Statements.

4.5 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied by Novell or Sub for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or the S-4, at the time such information is supplied and at the time of the Shareholders' Meeting, contains or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or will omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or will, in the case of the S-4, at the time the S-4 becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

4.6 Litigation. There is no action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim pending or, to the best knowledge of Novell, threatened against Novell or any of its Subsidiaries which could, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect or which in any manner challenges or seeks to prevent, enjoin, alter or materially delay any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.7 No Defaults. Neither Novell nor any Subsidiary of Novell is, or has received notice that it would be with the passage of time, (i) in violation of any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell; or (ii) in default or violation of any material term, condition or provision of (A) any material judgment, decree, order, injunction or stipulation applicable to Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell or (B) any material agreement, note, mortgage, indenture, contract, lease or instrument, permit, concession, franchise or license to which Novell or any Subsidiary of Novell is a party or by which Novell or any of its Subsidiaries or their properties or assets may be bound.

4.8 Opinion of Financial Advisor. Novell has been advised in writing by its financial advisor, Morgan Stanley & Co., that in its opinion as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio, when considered together with the transactions contemplated hereby, is fair to Novell from a financial point of view.

4.9 Accounting Matters. Neither Novell nor any of its Subsidiaries nor, to Novell's best knowledge after reasonable inquiry, any of its Affiliates (as defined in Section 5.12), has taken or agreed to take any action that would adversely affect the ability of Novell to account for the business combination to be effected by the Merger as a pooling of interests.

4.10 Brokers. No broker, finder or investment banker (other than Morgan Stanley & Co.) is entitled to any brokerage, finder’s or other fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Novell agrees to indemnify and hold harmless WordPerfect from any liability for any commission or compensation in the nature of a finder's fee (and the costs and expenses of defending against such liability or asserted liability) for which Novell or any of its officers, partners, employees or representatives is responsible.

4.11 Disclosure. No representation or warranty made by Novell in this Agreement, nor any document, written information, statement, financial statement, certificate, schedule or exhibit prepared and furnished or to be prepared and furnished by Novell or its representatives pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, contains or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact, or omits or will omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements or facts contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were furnished. To the best knowledge of Novell after reasonable inquiry, there is no event, fact or condition that has resulted in, or could reasonably be expected to result in, a Material Adverse Effect that has not been set forth in this Agreement or in the Novell Disclosure Schedule.

ARTICLE V

CONDUCT AND TRANSACTIONS PRIOR TO EFFECTIVE TIME: ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

5.1 Information and Access. Subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of that certain letter agreement dated March 7, 1994, between Novell and WordPerfect (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), from the date of this Agreement and continuing until the Effective Time, each party shall afford and, with respect to clause (b) below, such party shall cause its independent auditors to afford, (a) to the officers, independent auditors, counsel and other representatives of the other party reasonable access to the properties, books, records (including tax returns filed and those in preparation) and personnel of such party and its Subsidiaries in order that the other party may have a full opportunity to make such investigation as it reasonably desires to make of such party and its Subsidiaries and (b) to the independent auditors of the other Company, reasonable access to the audit work papers and other records of the independent auditors of such party and its Subsidiaries. Additionally, subject to and in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement, each party and its Subsidiaries will permit the other party to make such reasonable inspections of such party and its Subsidiaries and their respective operations during normal business hours as the other party may reasonably require and each party and its Subsidiaries will cause its officers and the officers of its Subsidiaries to furnish the other party with such financial and operating data and other information with respect to the business and properties of such party and its Subsidiaries as the other party may from time to time reasonably request. WordPerfect further agrees to provide Novell with the following information as soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement:

(a) The jurisdictions in which each WordPerfect Intellectual Property Right has been issued or registered or in which an application for such issuance or registration has been filed, including the respective registration or application numbers; material respects as of such specific date), unless any failures to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, do not have and could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Novell; and there shall have been no willful breach by Novell of any of its representations or warranties made in the Agreement. 8. Termination. This Agreement and the Proxy delivered in connection herewith shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date.

9.1 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, then the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

9.2 Binding Effect and Assignment. This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, but, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the parties hereto may be assigned by either of the parties without the prior written consent of the other.

WORDPERFECT CORPORATION

AFFILIATES AGREEMENT

This Affiliates Agreement (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of March 1, 1994 between WordPerfect Corporation, a Utah corporation ("WordPerfect"), Novell, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Novell") and the undersigned affiliate ("Affiliate") of WordPerfect.

RECITALS

A. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, WordPerfect and Novell have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the "Reorganization Agreement"), which contemplates that WordPerfect and Novell Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Novell ("Sub"), will enter into Articles of Merger, which Reorganization Agreement and Articles of Merger (collectively, the "Merger Agreements") provide for the merger (the "Merger") of Sub with and into WordPerfect. Pursuant to the Merger, all outstanding capital stock of WordPerfect will be converted into Common Stock of Novell.

B. Affiliate is the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) of such number of shares of the outstanding Common Stock, no par value per share, of WordPerfect as is indicated on the final page of this Agreement (the "Shares").

C. Affiliate understands that, since the Merger will be accounted for using the "pooling of interests" method and Affiliate is an "affiliate" of WordPerfect (within the meaning of Rule 14b promulgated under the Securities Act of 1934, as amended (the "Securities Act")), the Shares may only be disposed of in a conformity with the limitations described herein. Affiliate has been informed that the treatment of the Merger as a pooling of interests for accounting purposes, and as a tax-free reorganization under applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, is dependent upon the accuracy of certain of the representations and warranties and the compliance with certain of the agreements set forth herein. Affiliate further understands that the representations, warranties and agreement set forth herein will be relied upon by Novell, WordPerfect and their respective counsel and accounting firms.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Retain Shares.

1.1 Transfer and Encumbrance. Affiliate agrees not to transfer (except as may be specifically required by court order or as permitted under Section 1.3 below), sell, exchange, pledge or otherwise dispose or encumber the Shares or any New Shares, as defined in Section 1.2 below, prior to the Expiration Date, provided that any pledgee agrees not to transfer, sell, exchange, pledge or otherwise dispose or encumber the Shares or any New Shares, except in connection with a bona fide loan transaction, or otherwise dispose of or encumber the Shares or any New Shares or to make any offer or agreement relating thereto, at any time prior to the Expiration Date. As used herein, the term "Expiration Date" shall mean the date Novell shall have publicly released a report including the combined financial results of Novell and WordPerfect for a period of at least 30 days of combined operations of Novell and WordPerfect.

1.2 New Shares. Affiliate agrees that any shares of capital stock of WordPerfect that Affiliate purchases or with respect to which Affiliate otherwise acquired beneficial ownership after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Expiration Date ("New Shares") shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted Shares.

1.3 Permitted Transfers. Affiliate may transfer up to thirty percent (30%) of the Shares or any New Shares to members of Affiliate's immediate family, prior to any such transfer, if Novell receives advice from its counsel that such transfer will not affect the treatment of the Merger as a pooling of... interests for accounting purposes and (iii) the transferee agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement.

2. Tax Treatment: Rule 145. Affiliate understands and agrees that it is intended that the Merger will be treated as a "reorganization" for federal income tax purposes. Affiliate further understands and agrees that Affiliate may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of WordPerfect within the meaning of Rule 145, although nothing contained herein should be construed as an admission of such fact.

3. Reliance Upon Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Affiliate has been informed that the treatment of the Merger as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes requires that a sufficient number of former shareholders of WordPerfect maintain a meaningful continuing equity ownership interest in Novell after the Merger. Affiliate understands that the representations, warranties and covenants of Affiliate set forth herein will be relied upon by Novell. WordPerfect and their respective counsel and accounting firms.

4. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Affiliate. Affiliate represents, warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) Affiliate has full power and authority to execute this Agreement, to make the representations, warranties and covenants herein contained and to perform Affiliate's obligations hereunder.

(b) Set forth below are the signatures below the number of shares of Common Stock of WordPerfect ("WordPerfect Stock") owned by Affiliate, including all WordPerfect Stock as to which Affiliate has sole or shared voting or investment power and all rights, options and warrants to acquire WordPerfect Stock owned or held by Affiliate.

(c) Affiliate will not sell, transfer, exchange, pledge (except in connection with a bona fide loan transaction as set forth in Section 1.1 above) or otherwise dispose of, or make any offer or agreement relating to any of the foregoing with respect to, any shares of Common Stock of Novell ("Novell Stock") that Affiliate may acquire in connection with the Merger, or any securities that may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon or with respect thereto or issued or delivered in exchange or substitution therefor (all such shares and other securities of Novell are sometimes collectively referred to as "Restricted Securities"), or any option, right or other interest with respect to any Restricted Securities, unless: (i) such transaction is permitted pursuant to Rule 145(c) and 145(d) under the Securities Act; (ii) counsel representing Affiliate, which counsel is reasonably satisfactory to Novell, shall have advised Novell in a written opinion letter satisfactory to Novell and Novell's legal counsel, and upon which Novell and its legal counsel may rely, that no registration under the Securities Act would be required in connection with the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition; (iii) a registration statement under the Securities Act covering the Novell Stock proposed to be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, describing the manner and terms of the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition, and containing a current prospectus, shall have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and made effective under the Securities Act; or (iv) an authorized representative of the SEC shall have rendered written advice to Affiliate (sought by Affiliate or counsel to Affiliate, with a copy thereof and all other related communications delivered to Novell) to the effect that the SEC would take no action, or that the staff of the SEC would not recommend that the SEC take any action, with respect to the proposed disposition if consummated.

(A) Affiliate has, and as of the Effective Time will have, no present plan or intention (a "Plan") to sell, transfer, exchange, pledge (other than in a preexisting bona fide margin account) or otherwise dispose of, including a distribution by a partnership to its partners, or a corporation to its stockholders, or any other transaction which results in a reduction in the risk of ownership (any of the foregoing, a "Sale") of more than thirty percent (30%) of the shares of Novell Stock that Affiliate may acquire in connection with the Merger, or any securities that may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon with respect thereto or issued or delivered in exchange or substitution therefor. Affiliate is not aware of, or participating in, any Plan on the part of WordPerfect stockholders to engage in Sale of the shares of Novell Stock to be issued in the Merger such that the aggregate fair market value, as of the Effective Time of the Merger, of the shares subject to such Sales would exceed thirty percent (30%) of the aggregate fair market value of all shares of outstanding WordPerfect Stock immediately prior to the Merger. For purposes of the preceding sentence, shares of WordPerfect Stock (i) which are exchanged for cash in lieu of fractional shares of Novell Common Stock or (ii) with respect to which a pre-Merger Sale occurs in a Related Transaction (as hereinafter defined), shall be considered to be shares of WordPerfect Common Stock that are exchanged for Novell Stock in the Merger and then disposed of pursuant to a Plan. A Sale of Novell Stock shall be considered to have occurred pursuant to a Plan if, among other things, such Sale occurs in a Related Transaction. For purposes of this Section 4(d), a "Related Transaction" shall mean a transaction that is in contemplation of, or related or pursuant to, the Merger or the Merger Agreements. If any of Affiliate's representations in this Section 4(d) cease to be true at any time prior to the Effective Time, Affiliate will deliver to each of WordPerfect and Novell, prior to the Effective Time, a written statement to that effect, signed by Affiliate.

5. Rules 144 and 145. From and after the Effective Time and for so long as is necessary in order to permit Affiliate to sell the Novell Stock held by Affiliate pursuant to Rule 144 and, to the extent applicable, Rule 145, under the Securities Act, Novell will use its reasonable efforts to file on a timely basis all reports required to be filed by it pursuant to Section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, referred to in paragraph (c)(1) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, in order to permit Affiliate to sell the Novell Stock held by it pursuant to the terms and conditions of Rule 144 and the applicable provisions of Rule 145.

6. Limited Resales. Affiliate understands that, in addition to the restrictions imposed under Section 3 of this Agreement, the provisions of Rule 144 limit Affiliate's public resales of Restricted Securities, in the manner set forth in subsections (a), (b) and (c) below:

(a) Unless and until the restriction "Cut-off" provisions of Rule 144(d)(2) or Rule 144(d)(3) set forth below become available, public resales of Restricted Securities may only be made by Affiliate in compliance with the requirements of Rule 144(d)(1). Rule 144(d)(1) permits such resales only: (i) while Novell meets the public information requirements of Rule 144(c); (ii) in brokers' transactions or in transactions with a market maker; and (iii) where the aggregate number of Restricted Securities sold at any time together with all sales of Restricted Novell Stock sold for Affiliate's account during the preceding three-month period does not exceed the greater of (A) 18 of the Novell Common Stock outstanding or (B) the average weekly volume of trading in Novell Common Stock on all national securities exchanges, or reported through the automated quotation system of a registered securities association, during the four calendar weeks preceding the date of receipt of the order to execute the sale.

(b) Affiliate may make unrestricted sales of Restricted Securities pursuant to Rule 144(d)(2) if: (i) Affiliate has beneficially owned (within the meaning of Rule 144(d) under the Securities Act) the Restricted Securities for at least two years after the effective Time of the Merger; (ii) Affiliate is not an affiliate of Novell; and (iii) Novell meets the public information requirements of Rule 144(c).

(c) Affiliate may make unrestricted sales of Restricted Securities pursuant to Rule 144(d)(3) if Affiliate has beneficially owned (within the meaning of Rule 144(d) under the Securities Act) the Restricted Securities for at least three years and is not, and has not been for the last three months, an affiliate of Novell.

(d) Novell acknowledges that the provisions of Section 4(c) of this Agreement will be satisfied as to any sale by the undersigned of the Restricted Securities pursuant to Rule 144(d), by a broker's letter and a letter from the undersigned with respect to that sale stating that each of the above-described requirements of Rule 144(d)(1) has been met or is inapplicable by virtue of Rule 144(d)(2) or Rule 144(d)(3), provided, however, that Novell has no reasonable basis to believe that such sales were not made in compliance with such provisions of Rule 144(d).

7. Legends. Affiliate also understands and agrees that stop transfer instructions will be given to Novell's transfer agent with respect to certificates evidencing the Restricted Securities legends stating in substance:

"THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED, EXCHANGED, TRANSFERRED OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF A-43"
EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AND THE OTHER CONDITIONS SPECIFIED IN THAT CERTAIN AFFILIATES AGREEMENT DATED AS OF MARCH 21, 1994 AMONG NOVELL, INC., WORDPERFECT CORPORATION AND THE SHAREHOLDER, A COPY OF WHICH AFFILIATES AGREEMENT MAY BE INSPECTED BY THE HOLDER OF THIS CERTIFICATE AT THE OFFICES OF NOVELL INC. NOVELL INC. WILL FURNISH, WITHOUT CHARGE, A COPY THEREOF TO THE HOLDER OF THIS CERTIFICATE UPON WRITTEN REQUEST THEREFOR.

Novell agrees to remove promptly such stop transfer instructions and legend upon full compliance with this Agreement by the undersigned, including, without limitation, a sale or transfer of Novell Stock permitted under Section 4(c) above.

8. Termination. This Agreement shall be terminated and shall be of no further force and effect upon the termination of the Reorganization Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 of the Reorganization Agreement.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement shall be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

10. Binding Agreement. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon and enforceable against the parties and their successors and assigns, including administrators, executors, representatives, heirs, legatees and devisees of Affiliate and any pledgee holding Restricted Securities as collateral.

11. Waiver. No waiver by any party hereto of any condition or of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by each party hereto.

12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware.

13. Attorneys' Fees. In the event of any legal actions or proceeding to enforce or interpret the provisions hereof, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, whether or not the proceeding results in a final judgment.

14. Effect of Headings. The section headings herein are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

15. Third Party Reliance. Counsel to and accountants for the parties shall be entitled to rely upon this Agreement.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be duly executed on the day and year first above written.

THE TERMINATION

2.1 Termination of S Status. The Stockholders, severally and not jointly, hereby represent and warrant that the S corporation elections of WordPerfect and each of its Subsidiaries (that elected to be treated as S corporations) were terminated on or before January 1, 1994.

2.2 Distribution and Tax Sharing Agreements. Except with respect to (i) this Agreement, (ii) any promissory note or other indebtedness currently outstanding and reflected on the financial statements of WordPerfect or (iii) those agreements shown on the disclosure schedule attached hereto as Schedule 2.2, the Stockholders, severally but not jointly, hereby represent and warrant that they are not a party to and do not claim any rights under any Tax indemnity, Tax sharing, Tax allocation agreement with WordPerfect and/or any of its Subsidiaries or under any agreement obligating WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries to make any distribution or payment of cash or property to the Stockholders in respect of, or in connection with, their ownership of shares of capital stock of WordPerfect or the Subsidiaries (collectively, "Tax Sharing Agreements").. Except for this Tax Matters Agreement and any promissory notes or other indebtedness currently reflected on the financial statements of WordPerfect, to the extent any such Tax Sharing Agreements have existed or currently exist, the Stockholders, WordPerfect and each of the Subsidiaries hereby agree to terminate any and all such Tax Sharing Agreements effective as of December 31, 1993 and hereby waive any rights they may have now or in the future under such Tax Sharing Agreements.

ARTICLE III

TAX ALLOCATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

3.1 Tax Returns. WordPerfect hereby covenants and agrees on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries that it shall be responsible for and shall cause the filing of all Tax Returns which it or any of its Subsidiaries is required to file, or in which it or any of its Subsidiaries is to be included (including any combined, unitary or consolidated returns) with respect to all taxable years (or portions thereof) ending on or prior to December 31, 1993.

3.2 Corporate Liability for Taxes.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 3.3 hereof, WordPerfect shall pay or cause to be paid any and all Taxes required to be paid by WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries for all taxable years covered by the Tax Returns referred to in Section 3.1 as required by applicable law, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Stockholders from any liability for such Taxes.

(b) In the event an assessment of additional foreign income taxes by a foreign taxing authority against WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries, with respect to any taxable year ending on or prior to December 31, 1993, results in the WordPerfect Stockholders' having a claim for additional credits or deductions for foreign income taxes, then each WordPerfect Stockholder shall apply for a refund to the fullest extent allowed by law in order to realize the greatest refund available with respect to such additional credits or deductions and shall pay to Novell the amount thereof (plus interest received under Section 6611 of the Code) immediately upon receipt of such refund without regard to any other adjustments to such Stockholder's Tax Return for the taxable year for which such refund was received, provided, however, the amount paid hereunder shall be reduced by the reasonable fees and costs associated with such Stockholder's claim for refund and any taxes paid in respect of such refund. The liability of each Stockholder to WordPerfect hereunder shall be several and not joint.

1.3 Stockholder Indemnification for Certain Federal and State Corporate Tax Liabilities.

(a) Subject to section 1.3(b) below, each Stockholder, severally, in accordance with such Stockholder's Sharing Percentage (and not jointly), hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold each of Novell, WordPerfect and each of its Subsidiaries harmless from, against and in respect of any U.S. federal, Utah or New Mexico income tax liability, if any, resulting from (i) WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries failing to qualify as an S corporation under Code Section 1361(a)(1) (as enacted and in effect prior to January 1, 1993) or under applicable Utah or New Mexico state law (A) with respect to the Subsidiaries (other than those Subsidiaries that never purported to be taxed as S corporations) for every taxable year (or any portion of a taxable year) ending on or prior to December 31, 1993 for which each such Subsidiary purported to be taxed as an S Corporation, and (B) with respect to WordPerfect, for every taxable year (or any portion of a taxable year) commencing on or after January 1, 1985 and ending on or before October 1, 1993 or (ii) a breach of any representation or warranty made by the Stockholders in Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of this Tax Matters Agreement. For the purposes of subsection (i) of this section 3.3(a), "income tax liability" shall mean the amount of the income tax liability (plus interest, penalties and additions to taxes imposed with respect thereto) as finally determined by the relevant taxing authority, but only to the extent such amount represents the income tax liability that would have been payable with respect to the amount of taxable income shown on the relevant corporate tax return as originally filed.

(b) The total liability of each Stockholder under section 3.3(a)(i) shall not exceed the sum of (i) the product of the Stockholder's Sharing Percentage and One Hundred Fifteen Million Dollars ($115,000,000.00) (the "Indemnity Fund") (ii) the sum of each year's Indemnity Fund Earnings (as defined below) accrued on or after January 1, 1993; and (iii) the amount of any refund received by such Stockholder as a result of WordPerfect or any of its Subsidiaries failing to qualify as an S corporation (a "Failed S Election") for any taxable period (or that portion of any taxable period) during which the relevant corporation reported its filing status as that of an S corporation less any taxes paid in respect of such refund. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a Stockholder shall be deemed to have received a refund on the earlier to occur of (i) the date of the actual receipt of a refund attributable to a Failed S Election or (ii) the date upon which a refund attributable to a Failed S Election is applied against a tax liability of such Stockholder, but only after a Final Determination in respect of such other tax liability. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, if a Stockholder does not file a claim for refund within 90 days after receipt of written notice of a Final Determination as to a Failed S Election, the Stockholder shall be deemed to have received a refund for purposes of this Section 3.3(b) on the date which is 270 days after date of receipt of written notice. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) "Indemnity Fund Earnings" shall mean the product of the Indemnity Fund and 69 percent of the one year Treasury Bill rate in effect as of January 1st of the applicable year, and (ii) for purposes of calculating the Indemnity Fund Earnings, the Indemnity Fund shall be increased each year by the cumulative amount of the Indemnity Fund Earnings for all prior years.

3.4 Audit and Contest Rights.

(a) The parties hereto shall cooperate fully with each other in the conduct of any audit or other proceeding relating to Taxes of WordPerfect or its Subsidiaries and/or relating to Taxes of the Stockholders and shall make available to each other such Tax data and other information as may be reasonably required with respect to any Tax audit. Within twenty (20) days following notice of any proposed adjustment which could give rise to a claim for indemnification under Section 3.3, WordPerfect shall notify the Stockholder Representative of such proposed adjustment and thereafter, the Stockholders' Representatives shall have the right to control any proceedings relating to such proposed adjustment and to determine when, whether and to what extent to settle any such claim, assessment or dispute; provided, however, that WordPerfect shall have the right to control the conduct of any such audit or proceeding for which WordPerfect waives its rights to indemnification under Section 3.3 hereof.

(b) Within twenty (20) days following notice of any proposed adjustment that would not adversely affect Novell, WordPerfect or any of the Subsidiaries (as determined in good faith by WordPerfect) but that could have the effect of increasing the Tax liability for any period, WordPerfect shall notify the Stockholder Representative of such proposed adjustment and thereafter the Stockholders' Representatives. shall have the right to control any proceedings relating to such proposed adjustment and to determine when, whether and to what extent to settle any such claim, assessment or dispute. The Stockholders' Representative shall notify Novell within twenty (20) days with respect to the Stockholders intent to assume control of such proceeding. If the Stockholders elect not to assume control of such proceeding or fail to respond by written notice within such twenty (20) day period, the provisions of Section 3.4(c) shall apply.

(c)(i) Except as provided in section 3.4(c)(iii), below, neither Novell nor WordPerfect nor any Subsidiary shall make any election, take any Tax Return position, or agree to any Tax adjustment or adjustments that would have the effect of increasing the Stockholders' Tax liability with respect to any period ending on or prior to December 31, 1993 ("Company Action"), without first obtaining the prior written consent of the Stockholders' Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the affected company may take the Company Action without the consent of the Stockholders' Agent provided the affected company indemnifies the Stockholders against any increase in the Stockholders' Tax liability resulting from the Company Action.

(i) A company desiring to take a Company Action shall notify the Stockholders' Agent in writing of the proposed Company Action, and shall provide an estimate to the Stockholders' Agent of the aggregate increase in the Stockholders' taxable income arising out of the Company Action. The Stockholders' Agent shall have sixty (60) days from the date of the request for consent in which to notify the affected company in writing whether the Stockholders' Agent consents to the Company Action. If the Stockholders' Agent does not respond within the sixty (60) day period the Stockholders' Agent shall be conclusively deemed to have consented to the Company Action.

(iii) The action of the Stockholders' Agent to withhold consent with respect to any proposed Tax Return position or adjustment shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable if the aggregate increase in the Stockholders' taxable income resulting therefrom, when added to any prior approved adjustment or Tax Return positions subject to this section 3.4, would be to increase the Stockholders' aggregate taxable income by $10 million; provided, however, if Novell provides to the Stockholders' Agent a written opinion of tax counsel (approved by the Stockholders' Agent which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) that is more likely than not that such Company Action is required by law, then the Stockholders' Agent shall be conclusively presumed to have given consent to such adjustment or Tax Return position, notwithstanding the Stockholders' Agent prior disapproval, if any. However, if the aggregate increase in the Stockholders' taxable income, when added to any prior Company Actions, would be to increase the such taxable income by less than $10 million, then consent shall not be withheld in the absence of delivery to Novell, within sixty (60) days of the date of the request for such consent, of a written opinion of tax counsel (approved by Novell which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) to the effect that it is more likely than not that such Tax Return position or adjustment is not required by law. The sixty (60) day period provided in section 3.4(c)(ii) for action by the Stockholders' Agent shall be extended as necessary so that the Stockholders' Agent have no less than fourteen (14) days after receipt of the tax opinion to review and approve the form of the tax opinion. If a proposed adjustment is not consented to pursuant to this Section 3.4(c)(iii), then Novell shall be obligated to pursue the proceedings in a manner consistent with the Stockholders' best interest and the Stockholders shall reimburse Novell for all reasonable fees and costs associated with such proceedings. Solely with respect to an election, the action of a Stockholders' Agent to withhold consent shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable if Novell provides to the Stockholders' Agent a written opinion of tax counsel (approved by the Stockholders' Agent which approval will not be unreasonably withheld) to the effect that it is more likely than not that the proposed election is required by law. No action by Novell pursuant to this Section 3.4(c)(iii) shall preclude the Stockholders from contesting any proposed audit adjustment affecting their individual returns under Sections 6241-6245 of the Code.

(d) For purposes of this Section 3.4, an adjustment shall be deemed to be proposed (and WordPerfect and Novell shall be deemed to have received notice of such proposal) as of the first date that WordPerfect or Novell receives written advice from an applicable taxing authority (or agent thereof) to the effect that such Taxing authority is proposing to make an adjustment to the Tax liability or Tax Return of WordPerfect or any Stockholder.

(e) In the event of a conflict between the provisions of subsections 3.4(a) or 3.4(b), on the one hand, and subsection 3.4(c) on the other, the provisions of subsection 3.4(a) or (b), as applicable, shall control.

3.5 Payments. The Party or Parties required to make any payment under Section 3.2 or Section 3.3 shall make such payment within thirty (30) days after the Final Determination of any Tax liability resulting in a claim for indemnification hereunder.

ARTICLE IV
STOCKHOLDERS' REPRESENTATIVES

4.1 Stockholders' Representatives. In order to facilitate the resolution of any Tax audit issues between WordPerfect or Novell on the one hand, and the Stockholders, on the other, each Stockholder hereby designates and appoints Alan C. Ashton and Bruce W. Bastian, acting jointly, as his or her representative hereunder (acting jointly, the 'Stockholders' Representatives') and authorizes them to take all actions on his or her behalf under this Agreement including the appointment of an agent ('Stockholders' Agent') to represent the Stockholders on a day to day basis in connection with any and all Tax audits. The Stockholders' Agent shall be Novell's Tax Director. Novell and WordPerfect shall be entitled to rely on all unanimous actions, decisions, representations and promises of the Stockholders' Representatives and Stockholders' Agent as if the same had been made by each Stockholder personally, without any obligation to verify, authenticate or seek confirmation of any other facts from the Stockholders or from any other person. Upon the death or legal incapacity of either of the individuals named above, the executor or guardian of the estate of such individual shall succeed him as a Stockholders' Representative.

4.2 Stockholder Vote. If the Stockholders' Representatives are unable to agree with respect to an action to be taken under Section 3.4 of this Agreement, they shall so notify Novell, WordPerfect and the Stockholders in writing. Thereafter, any action to be taken by the Stockholders' Representatives or Stockholders' Agent under Section 3.4 with respect to any such action shall be decided by a majority vote of the Stockholders who would be liable for any resulting Tax under Section 3.3, with each such Stockholder having a vote equal to his or her Sharing Percentage.

For purposes of Part 13:

(1) "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(2) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share, exchange of that issuer.

(3) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under Section 16-10a-1302 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by Sections 16-10a-1320 through 16-10a-1328.

(4) "Fair value" with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action.

(5) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the statutory rate set forth in Section 15-1-1, compounded annually.

(6) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee to the extent the beneficial owner is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder as provided in Section 16-10a-723.

(7) "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

16-10A-1302. RIGHT TO DISSENT.

(1) A shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of shares held by him in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

(a) consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:

(i) shareholder approval is required for the merger by Section 16-10a-1103 or the articles of incorporation; or

(ii) the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under Section 16-10a-1104;

(b) consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired;

(c) consummation of a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation for which a shareholder vote is required under Subsection 16-10a-1202(1), but not including a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale; and

(d) consummation of a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property of an entity controlled by the corporation if the shareholders of the corporation were entitled to vote upon the consent of the corporation to the disposition pursuant to Subsection 16-10a-1202(2).
(2) A shareholder is entitled to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of any other corporate action to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors so provides.

(3) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this part, except to the extent otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors, and subject to the limitations set forth in Subsection (4), a shareholder is not entitled to dissent and obtain payment under Subsection (1) of the fair value of the shares of any class or series of shares which either were listed on a national securities exchange registered under the Federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System, or were held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders, at the time of:

(a) the record date fixed under Section 16-10a-707 to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the shareholders' meeting at which the corporate action is submitted to a vote;

(b) the record date fixed under Section 16-10a-704 to determine shareholders entitled to sign writings consenting to the proposed corporate action; or

(c) the effective date of the corporate action if the corporate action is authorized other than by a vote of shareholders.

(4) The limitation set forth in Subsection (3) does not apply if the shareholder will receive for his shares, pursuant to the corporate action, anything except:

(a) shares of the corporation surviving the consummation of the plan of merger or share exchange;

(b) shares of a corporation which at the effective date of the plan of merger or share exchange either will be listed on a national securities exchange registered under the Federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or on the National Market System of the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System, or will be held of record by more than 2,000 shareholders;

(c) cash in lieu of fractional shares; or

(d) any combination of the shares described in Subsection (4), or cash in lieu of fractional shares.

(5) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this part may not challenge the corporate action creating the entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to him or to the corporation.

16-18A-1303. DISSENT BY NOMINEES AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and causes the corporation to receive written notice which states the dissent and the name and address of each person or whose behalf dissenters' rights are being asserted. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the other shares held of record by him were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(a) the beneficial shareholder causes the corporation to receive the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(b) the beneficial shareholder dissents with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder.

(3) The corporation may require that, when a record shareholder dissents with respect to the shares held by any one or more beneficial shareholders, each beneficial shareholder must certify to the corporation that both he and the record shareholders of all shares owned beneficially by him have asserted, or will timely assert.
dissenters' rights. The certification requirement must be stated in the dissenters' notice given pursuant to Section 16-10a-1322.

16-10A-1320. NOTICE OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

(1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must be sent to all shareholders of the corporation as of the applicable record date, whether or not they are entitled to vote at the meeting.
The notice shall state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this part. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of this part and the materials, if any, that under this chapter are required to be given the shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed action at the meeting.
Failure to give notice as required by this subsection does not affect any action taken at the shareholders' meeting for which the notice was to have been given.

(2) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is authorized without a meeting of shareholders pursuant to Section 16-10a-704, any written or oral solicitation of a shareholder to execute a written consent to the action contemplated by Section 16-10a-704 must be accompanied or preceded by a written notice stating that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this part, by a copy of this part, and by the materials, if any, that under this chapter would have been required to be given to shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed action if the proposed action were submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting. Failure to give written notice as provided by this subsection does not affect any action taken pursuant to Section 16-10a-704 for which the notice was to have been given.

16-10A-1321. DEMAND FOR PAYMENT -- ELIGIBILITY AND NOTICE OF INTENT.

(1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) must cause the corporation to receive, before the vote is taken, written notice of his intent to demand payment for shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) may not vote any of his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is authorized without a meeting of shareholders pursuant to Section 16-10a-704, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights may not execute a writing consenting to the proposed corporate action.

(3) In order, to be entitled to payment for shares under this part, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution adopted by the board of directors, a shareholder must have been a shareholder with respect to the shares for which payment is demanded as of the date the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is approved by the shareholders if shareholder approval is required, or as of the effective date of the corporate action if the corporate action is authorized other than by a vote of shareholders.

(4) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of Subsections (1) through (3) is not entitled to payment for shares under this part.

16-10A-1322. DISSENTERS' NOTICE.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 is authorized, the corporation shall give a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who are entitled to demand payment for their shares under this part.
(2) The dissenters' notice required by Subsection (1) must be sent no later than ten days after the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302, and shall:

(a) state that the corporate action was authorized and the effective date or proposed effective date of the corporate action;

(b) state an address at which the corporation will receive payment demands and an address at which certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(c) inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(d) supply a form for demanding payment, which form requests a dissenter to state an address to which payment is to be made;

(e) set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand and by which certificates for certificated shares must be deposited at the address indicated in the dissenters' notice, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 70 days after the date the dissenters' notice required by Subsection (1) is given;

(f) state the requirement contemplated by Subsection 16-10a-1303(3), if the requirement is imposed; and

(g) be accompanied by a copy of this part.

16-10A-1323. PROCEDURE TO DEMAND PAYMENT.

(1) A shareholder who is given a dissenters' notice described in Section 16-10a-1322, who meets the requirements of Section 16-10a-1321, and wishes to assert dissenters' rights must, in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice:

(a) cause the corporation to receive a payment demand, which may be the payment demand form contemplated in Subsection 16-10a-1322(2)(d), duly completed, or may be stated in another writing;

(b) deposit certificates for his certificated shares in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice; and

(c) if required by the corporation in the dissenters' notice described in Section 16-10a-1322, as contemplated by Section 16-10a-1327, certify in writing, in or with the payment demand, whether or not he or the person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302.

(2) A shareholder who demands payment in accordance with Subsection (1) retains all rights of a shareholder except the right to transfer the shares until the effective date of the proposed corporate action giving rise to the exercise of dissenters' rights and has only the right to receive payment for the shares after the effective date of the corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment and deposit share certificates as required, by the date or dates set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for shares under this part.

16-10A-1324. UNCERTIFICATED SHARES.

(1) Upon receipt of a demand for payment under Section 16-10a-1323 from a shareholder holding uncertificated shares, and in lieu of the deposit of certificates as required, by the date or dates set in the dissenters' notice, the corporation may restrict the transfer of the shares until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions are released under Section 16-10a-1326.

(2) In all other respects, the provisions of Section 16-10a-1323 apply to shareholders who own uncertificated shares.
16-10A-1325. PAYMENT.

(1) Except as provided in Section 16-10a-1327, upon the later of the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302, and receipt by the corporation of each payment demand pursuant to Section 16-10a-1323, the corporation shall pay the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest to each dissenter who has complied with Section 16-10a-1323, and who meets the requirements of Section 16-10a-1321, and who has not yet received payment.

(2) Each payment made pursuant to Subsection (1) must be accompanied by:

(a) (i) A the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of its most recent fiscal year, or if not available, a fiscal year ending not more than 12 months before the date of payment;

(B) an income statement for that year;

(C) a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year and a statement of cash flow for that year, if the corporation customarily provides such statements to shareholders; and

(D) the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares and the amount of interest payable with respect to the shares;

(c) a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under Section 16-10a-1328; and

(d) a copy of this part.

16-10A-1326. FAILURE TO TAKE ACTION.

(1) If the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 does not occur within 60 days after the date set by the corporation as the date by which the corporation must receive payment demands as provided in Section 16-10a-1322, the corporation shall return all deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares, and all shareholders who submitted a demand for payment pursuant to Section 16-10a-1323 shall thereafter have all rights of a shareholder as if no demand for payment had been made.

(2) If the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 occurs more than 60 days after the date set by the corporation as the date by which the corporation must receive payment demands as provided in Section 16-10a-1322, then the corporation shall send a new dissenters' notice, as provided in Section 16-10a-1322, and the provisions of Sections 16-10a-1323 through 16-10a-1328 shall again be applicable.

16-10A-1327. SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO SHARES ACQUIRED AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT OF PROPOSED CORPORATE ACTION.

(1) A corporation may, with the dissenters' notice given pursuant to Section 16-10a-1322, state the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 16-10a-1302 and state that a shareholder who asserts dissenters' rights must certify in writing, in or with the payment demand, whether or not he or the person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date. With respect to any dissenter who does not certify in writing, in or with the payment demand that he or the person on whose behalf the dissenters' rights are being asserted, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date, the corporation may, in lieu of making the payment provided in Section 16-10a-1325, offer to make payment if the dissenter agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand.

(2) An offer to make payment under Subsection (1) shall include or be accompanied by the information required by Subsection 16-10a-1325(2).
16-10A-1328. PROCEDURE IF SHAREHOLDER DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT OR OFFER.

(1) A dissenter who has not accepted an offer made by a corporation under Section 16-10A-1325 may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and demand payment of the estimated amount, plus interest, less any payment made under Section 16-10A-1325, if:

(a) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under Section 16-10A-1325 or offered under Section 16-10A-1327 is less than the fair value of the shares;

(b) the corporation fails to make payment under Section 16-10A-1325 within 60 days after the date set by the corporation as the date by which it must receive the payment demand; or

(c) the corporation, having failed to take the proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares as required by Section 16-10A-1326.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless he causes the corporation to receive the notice required by Subsection (1) within 30 days after the corporation made or offered payment for his shares.

16-10A-1330. JUDICIAL APPRAISAL OF SHARES -- COURT ACTION.

(1) If a demand for payment under Section 16-10A-1328 remains unresolved, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand contemplated by Section 16-10A-1328, and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and the amount of interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unresolved the amount demanded.

(2) The proceeding shall commence the proceeding described in Subsection (1) in the district court of the county in this state where the corporation's principal office, or if it has no principal office in this state, the county where its registered office is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, or the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares. Service may also be made otherwise as provided by law.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters who have satisfied the requirements of Sections 16-10A-1321, 16-10A-1323, and 16-10A-1325, whether or not they are residents of this state whose demands remain unresolved, parties to the proceeding commenced under Subsection (2) as an action against their shares. All such dissenters who are named as parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Service on each dissenter may be by registered or certified mail to the address stated in his payment demand made pursuant to Section 16-10A-1325. If no address is stated in the payment demand, service may be made at the address stated in the payment demand given pursuant to Section 16-10A-1323. If no address is stated in the payment demand, service may be made at the address shown on the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares. Service may also be made otherwise as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under Subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding commenced under Subsection (2) is entitled to judgment:

(a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds that the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation pursuant to Section 16-10A-1325; or

(b) for the fair value, plus interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under Section 16-10A-1327.

16-10A-1331. COURT COSTS AND COUNSEL FEES.

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under Section 16-10a-1330 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds that the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under Section 16-10a-1328.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 16-10a-1320 through 16-10a-1328; or

(b) against either the corporation or one or more dissenters, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this part.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefitted.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED UNAUDITED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A. QUARTERLY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying consolidated unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q but do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles and should therefore, be read in conjunction with the Company's fiscal 1993 Annual Report to Shareholders. These statements do include all normal recurring adjustments which the Company believes necessary for a fair presentation of the statements. The interim operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results for a full year.

B. MERGERS, ACQUISITIONS, AND STRATEGIC INVESTMENTS

In April 1991, the Company purchased a minority equity position in UNIX System Laboratories, Inc. (USL), a subsidiary of AT&T that develops and licenses the UNIX operating system and other standards-based software to vendors worldwide. This cash investment of $15.0 million was accounted for using the cost method. Later, in December 1991, the Company announced the formation of Univell, a 55% owned joint venture with USL, formed to accelerate the expanded use of the UNIX operating system in the personal computer and network computing marketplace. Novell and USL contributed cash and technology rights to Univell. In June 1993, the Company acquired the remaining unowned portion of USL by issuing approximately 11.3 million shares of Novell common stock valued at $301.8 million in exchange for all of the outstanding stock of USL not previously owned by Novell and assumed additional liabilities of $9.4 million. The transaction was accounted for as a purchase and, on this basis a one-time write-off of $268.7 million for purchased research and development was incurred.

Univel has been included in the consolidated financial statements of Novell since December 1991 by virtue of Novell’s 55% ownership interest. That ownership interest is now 100% since the June 1993 acquisition of USL, whereby both USL and Univell are now included in the consolidated financial statements of Novell.

In June 1993, the Company purchased all of the outstanding stock not previously owned by Novell of Sercius Corporation (Sercius), a developer of object-based application tools, for $17.0 million cash and assumed liabilities of $9.0 million, whereby Sercius became a wholly owned subsidiary of Novell. Novell’s previous ownership was a $1.1 million cash investment. The transaction was accounted for as a purchase and on this basis, resulted in a one-time write-off of $22.1 million in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

In June 1993, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Software Transformation, Inc. (STI), a developer of software development tools, by issuing approximately 800,000 shares of Novell Common stock in exchange for all of the outstanding stock of STI. The transaction was accounted for as a pooling of interests, however, prior periods were not restated due to immateriality.

In July 1993, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Fluent, Inc. (Fluent), a developer of multimedia software for personal computers, for $18.5 million cash and assumed liabilities of $3.0 million, whereby Fluent became a wholly owned subsidiary of Novell. The transaction was accounted for as a purchase and, on this basis, resulted in a one-time write-off of $20.9 million in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

In March 1994, the Company signed a definitive merger agreement to acquire all of the outstanding stock of WordPerfect Corporation (WordPerfect), a developer of application software for personal computers, by issuing 5.4 million shares of Novell common stock in exchange for all of the outstanding shares of WordPerfect common stock and assuming the 7.8 million WordPerfect stock options outstanding. This transaction would be accounted for as a pooling of interests. Additionally in March 1994, the Company signed an agreement with Borland International, Inc. to purchase its QuattroPro spreadsheet product line for approximately $150 million of cash and a three-year license to reproduce and distribute up to one million copies of current and future versions of Borland’s Paradox relational database product for approximately $15 million of cash. These transactions are all expected to be completed during the third quarter of fiscal 1994.
C. INCOME TAXES

The Company's estimated effective tax rate for the first six months of fiscal 1994 was 33.5%. The estimated tax rate for fiscal 1994 is equal to the fiscal 1993 rate, excluding the one-time charge related to purchased research and development in the third quarter of fiscal 1993, which was not deductible for income tax purposes. The Company paid cash amounts for income taxes of $66.1 million and $25.1 million, in the first six months of fiscal 1994 and 1993, respectively.

The Company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 109 effective October 31, 1993 for fiscal year 1994. As permitted under the new rules, prior years financial statements have not been restated.

D. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company currently has a $10.0 million unsecured revolving bank line of credit, with interest at the prime rate. The line can be used for either letter of credit or working capital purposes. The line is subject to the terms of a loan agreement containing financial covenants and restrictions, none of which are expected to significantly affect the Company's operations. At April 30, 1994, there were no borrowings, letter of credit acceptances, or commitments under such line.

The Company has an additional $10.0 million credit facility with another bank which is not subject to a loan agreement. At April 30, 1994, standby letters of credit of $207,000 were outstanding under this agreement.

On November 10, 1993, a suit was filed against Novell and certain of its officers and directors alleging violation of federal securities laws. The lawsuit was brought as a purported class action on behalf of purchasers of Novell common stock from June 23, 1993 through July 26, 1993. Novell does not believe that the resolution of this legal matter will have a material adverse effect on its financial position or results of operations.

In December of 1991, Roger Billings and his International Academy of Science, (the Academy) filed suit against Novell alleging that the Company infringes on a patent allegedly owned by the Academy. The case is still in its pretrial phase. On June 6, 1994, Novell filed a petition with the U.S. Patent and Trademark office requesting that it invalidate the patent. The Company believes that the ultimate resolution of this legal proceeding will not have a material adverse effect on its financial position or results of operations.

The Company is a party to a number of additional legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of its business. The Company believes the ultimate resolution of these claims will not have a material adverse effect on its financial position or results of operations.
E. PUT WARRANTS

During fiscal 1993, the Company sold put warrants on 5.0 million shares of its stock, callable on specific dates in the first quarter of fiscal 1994, giving third parties the right to sell shares of Novell common stock to the Company at contractually specified prices. The put warrant balance on the balance sheet at October 30, 1993 is the amount the Company would have been obligated to pay if all the put warrants were exercised at the strike price without a cash-out settlement. During the first quarter of fiscal 1994, the Company settled all of its put warrant obligations for cash of $2.3 million and therefore reversed the put warrant obligation back to paid-in capital.

F. EXPORT SALES

The Company markets internationally through distributors who sell to dealers and end users. For the six months ended April 30, 1994 and May 1, 1993, export sales to international customers were approximately $308.8 million and $260.9 million, respectively. In the first six months of fiscal 1994 and fiscal 1993, 58% and 63%, respectively, of export sales were to European countries. Except for Germany, which accounted for 13% of revenue in the first six months of fiscal 1993, no one foreign country accounted for 10% or more of total sales in either period. Except for one multi-national distributor, which accounted for 10% of revenue in the first six months of fiscal 1994 and 11% of revenue in the first six months of fiscal 1993, no customer accounted for more than 10% of revenue in any period.

G. NET INCOME PER SHARE

Net income per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the periods, including common stock equivalents (unless antidilutive). Common stock equivalents consist of outstanding stock options.
Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

INTRODUCTION

Novell's business strategy is to be a leading supplier of software products for the network computing industry. Over the past several years, in addition to its internal growth, the Company has issued common stock or paid cash to acquire technology companies, invested cash in other technology companies, and formed strategic alliances with still other technology companies. Novell undertook all of these transactions to promote the growth of the network computing industry, and in many cases to also broaden the Company's business as a system software supplier.

In April 1991, the Company invested $15.0 million in UNIX System Laboratories, Inc. (USL), a subsidiary of AT&T that develops and licenses the UNIX operating system and other standards-based software to customers worldwide. In December 1991, the Company announced the formation of Univel, a joint venture with USL, formed to accelerate the expanded use of the UNIX operating system in the personal computer and network computing marketplace. Novell and USL contributed cash and technology rights to Univel. Then in June 1991, the Company acquired the remaining portion of USL by issuing approximately 11.1 million shares of Novell common stock valued at $321.8 million in exchange for all of the outstanding stock of USL not previously owned by Novell and assumed additional liabilities of $9.4 million. The transaction was accounted for as a purchase and, on this basis, resulted in a one-time write-off of $268.7 million for purchased research and development in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

In June 1993, the Company purchased all of the outstanding stock not previously owned by Novell of Sirius Corporation (Sirius), a developer of object-based application tools, for $17.0 million cash and assumed liabilities of $5.0 million, whereby Sirius became a wholly owned subsidiary of Novell. Novell previously had invested cash of $1.1 million in Sirius. This transaction was accounted for as a purchase and, on this basis, resulted in a one-time write-off of $22.1 million for purchased research and development in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

In June 1993, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Software Transformation, Inc. (STI), a developer of software development tools, by issuing approximately 800,000 shares of Novell common stock in exchange for all of the outstanding stock of STI. The transaction was accounted for as a pooling of interests, however, prior periods were not restated due to immateriality.

In July 1993, the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of Fluent, Inc. (Fluent), a developer of multimedia software for personal computers, for $18.5 million cash and assumed liabilities of $3.0 whereby Fluent became a wholly owned subsidiary of Novell. The transaction was accounted for as a purchase and, on this basis resulted in a one-time write-off of $20.7 million for purchased research and development in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

In March 1994, the Company signed a definitive merger agreement to acquire all of the outstanding stock of WordPerfect Corporation (WordPerfect), a developer of application software for personal computers, by issuing 5.4 million shares of Novell common stock in exchange for all of the outstanding shares of WordPerfect common stock and assuming the 7.8 million WordPerfect stock options outstanding. This transaction would be accounted for as a pooling of interests. Additionally, the Company signed an agreement with Borland International, Inc. to purchase its Quattro Pro spreadsheet product line for approximately $110 million of cash, and to purchase a three year license to reproduce and distribute up to one million copies of current and future versions of Borland's Paradox relational database product for approximately $35 million of cash. These transactions are all expected to be completed during the third quarter of fiscal 1994.

The Company will continue to look for acquisitions, investments, or strategic alliances which it believes complement its overall business strategy.

During the second quarter of fiscal 1994, the Company sold a once time fully paid license for UNIX technology to Sun Microsystems for $80.5 million. This transaction accounted for 29% growth in net sales for the second quarter of fiscal 1994 compared to the second quarter of fiscal 1993 and 15% growth in the first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the first six months of fiscal 1993. The analysis of net sales that follows excludes the Sun Microsystems transaction.

The remaining growth in net sales in both the second quarter and the first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the same period of fiscal 1993 is the result of increases in the Company’s NetWare 3, NetWare J, software royalties, Personal NetWare, connectivity products, and training, offset by decreases in NetWare 4, NetWare 2, NetWare SFT II, communication products, and hardware royalties. In addition, approximately 74% of the growth in both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993 is attributable to the acquisition of USL in mid-June 1993 as its revenue was not included in the first six months of fiscal 1993.

Net sales were also favorably affected by growth in both domestic and international sales in the first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the first six months of fiscal 1993. International sales grew 18% while domestic sales grew 17% in the first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the first six months of 1993. Export sales were approximately 48% of net sales in both the first six months of fiscal 1994 and the first six months of 1993. The rate of export sales growth began to slow down in late fiscal 1993, primarily due to an economic slowdown in central Europe. However, despite this slowdown in central Europe, the Company expects that total export sales will continue to grow during the remainder of fiscal 1994 because of growth in non-central European markets.

In connection with the Sun Microsystems transaction, the Company revalued the software and other intangibles remaining on the balance sheet related to the USL acquisition in fiscal 1993. Accordingly, $25 million of costs associated with the sale of the license to Sun Microsystems were charged to cost of sales during the second quarter of fiscal 1994. Excluding the Sun Microsystems revenue and the related costs, the gross profit percentage would have been 4.2 percentage points higher in the second quarter of fiscal 1994 and 2.5 percentage points higher in the first six months of fiscal 1994.

The remaining decreases of 4.7 percentage points in the second quarter of fiscal 1994 compared to the second quarter of fiscal 1993 and of 3.0 percentage points in the first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the first six months of fiscal 1993 are attributable to relatively higher costs related to product transitions, the amortization of purchased software acquired in the USL acquisition, and an upgrade program during the second quarter of fiscal 1994. Future fluctuations in the gross profit margin will be primarily attributable to price changes, changes in sales mix by product or distribution channel, and special product promotions. The Company expects the gross profit margin in fiscal 1994 to be down slightly compared to the gross profit margin in fiscal 1993 due to the items described above.

Excluding the Sun Microsystems revenue, sales and marketing expenses were fairly flat at 22% of net sales in both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993. However, sales and marketing expenses may fluctuate as a percentage of net sales in any given period due to product promotions, advertising, or other discretionary expenses.

Excluding the Sun Microsystems revenue, product development expenses increased as a percentage of net sales in the second quarter to 16.5% and in the first six months of fiscal 1994 to 17.3% compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993. The increase is a result of the acquisitions in fiscal 1993 and from planned headcount increases in an effort to increase the Company's investment in new products. The acquisitions had relatively higher product development expenses as a percentage of net sales.

Excluding the Sun Microsystems revenue, general and administrative expenses remained flat at 7% of net sales in both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993. Even though these expenses were flat between years, the comparative periods of fiscal 1994 had relatively higher legal fees and lower bad debt expense compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993. These changes tended to offset each other.

Overall, headcount and operating expenses have grown more rapidly than revenues in both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 1994 compared to the same periods of fiscal 1993 due to the acquisitions, which occurred in the third quarter of fiscal 1993.

The increases in other income (expense) are primarily the result of a larger investment portfolio in fiscal 1994 and the timing of capital gains generated from the portfolio. In order to achieve potentially higher returns, a limited portion of the Company’s investment portfolio is invested in mutual funds which incur some market risk. The Company believes that the market risk has been limited by diversification and by use of a funds management timing service which switches funds out of mutual funds and into money market funds when preset signals occur.

The Company’s estimated effective tax rate for fiscal 1994 remained at 33.5% which is equal to the fiscal 1993 rate, excluding the effect of the one-time write-off of purchased research and development in fiscal 1993, which was not tax deductible.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash and short-term investments increased to $929.6 million at April 30, 1994 from $644.1 million at October 30, 1993. The major reasons for this increase were the $280.4 million of cash provided by operating activities and the $16.8 million provided by financing activities, offset by the $40.7 million used by investing activities. The investment portfolio is diversified among security types, industry groups, and individual issuers. The Company’s principal source of liquidity has been from operations. At April 30, 1994, the Company’s principal unused sources of liquidity consisted of cash and short-term investments and available borrowing capacity of approximately $19.8 million under its credit facilities. The Company’s liquidity needs are principally for the Company’s financing of accounts receivable, capital assets, acquisitions and strategic investments and to have flexibility in a dynamic and competitive operating environment.

During fiscal 1994 the Company has continued to generate cash from operations. The Company anticipates being able to fund its current operations and capital expenditures planned for the foreseeable future with existing cash and short-term investments together with internally generated funds. Borrowings under the Company’s credit facilities, or public offerings of equity or debt securities are available if the need arises. As the Company grows, investments will continue in product development in new and existing areas of technology. Cash may also be used to acquire technology through purchases and strategic acquisitions. It is anticipated that during the third quarter of fiscal 1994, the Company will use $145 million of its cash to acquire the QuattroPro spreadsheet product line and one million Paradox licenses from Borland International, Inc. Additionally, it is anticipated that the Company will pay approximately $120 million to retire all of the short and long-term debt of WordPerfect Corporation, once the merger is completed. Capital expenditures in fiscal 1994 are anticipated to be approximately $80 million, but could be reduced if the growth of the Company is less than presently anticipated.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS

(1) The Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(2) The Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 165(c), the Registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(3) The Registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (2) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(4) The Registrant hereby undertakes (i) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement (A) to include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act, (B) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement and (C) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; and (ii) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(5) The Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the Prospectus/Proxy Statement pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

(6) The Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.

(7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
